LITTLE SANDY SLEIGHFOOT

Music by
JOSEPH E. SAVARINO

Lyrics by PHILIP M. CRANE

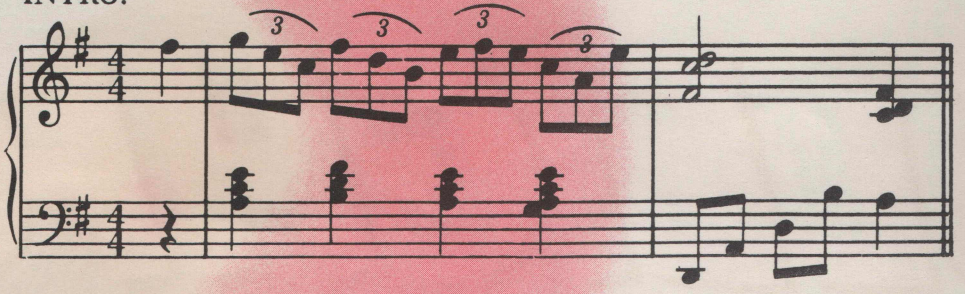
LITTLE SANDY SLEIGHFOOT

INTRO.



VERSE
(M. M. 115-120)

His name was San - dy Sleigh-foot, And oh so sad was he, For though he stood just four feet tall his feet were three feet three. He tried to help make San - ta's toys but with his feet so long, He'd © Copyright 1957 Hopkins Syndicate, Inc.

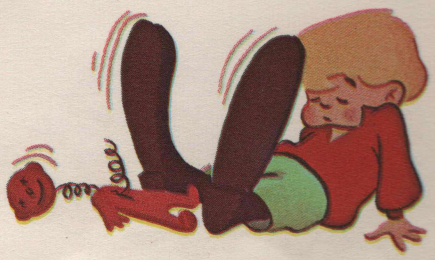
Printed in U.S.A.

Rit.

trip and fall and break them all just ev - 'ry-thing went wrong. Now



CHORUS

Gaily (M.M. ♩= 115-120)

LIT - TLE SAN - DY SLEIGH-FOOT don't you feel so blue; ev - en with your feet so long God has a place for you. The oth - er kids made fun of him, they laughed at him with glee, But

SAN - DY SLEIGH FOOT learned one day with - out skis he could ski; So when the night 'fore Christ-mas Eve the rein - deer sta - ble burned, He skied down - hill and saved the deer by re - mem-bering what he'd learned. Now ev - 'ry - bo - dy loves him, and San - ta loves him too, And

Rit.

ev - er since on Christ-mas eve he's helped bring gifts to you.

The Song

"Little Sandy Sleighfoot"

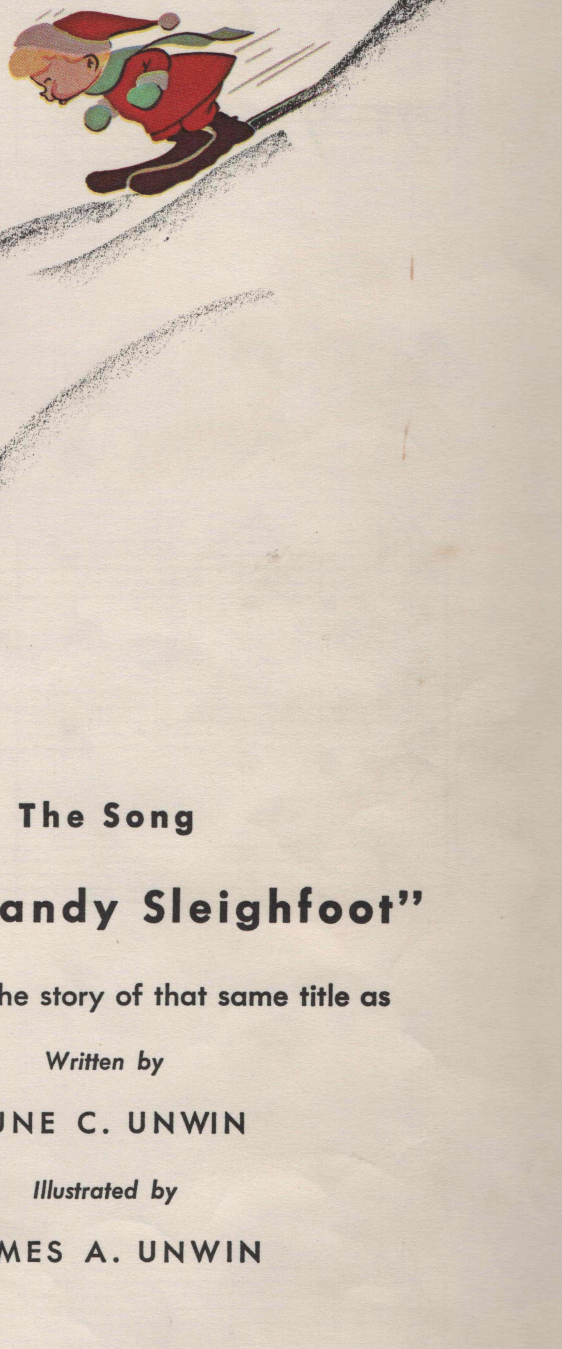
Exclusively Recorded

by

COLUMBIA RECORDS

Produced by

MITCH MILLER



The Song

"Little Sandy Sleighfoot"

is based on the story of that same title as

Written by

JUNE C. UNWIN

Illustrated by

JAMES A. UNWIN

PRICE 60c

HOPKINS SYNDICATE, INC. • 520 N. MICHIGAN AVE., CHICAGO 11, ILLINOIS